

One Weekend, Two Courses!

English Institute Of Sport: Site of GT Training

Graston Technique® is offering M1–Basic and M2–Advanced Training on 24–26, February 2012 at English Institute of Sport, Bisham Abbey.

This interdisciplinary combo course is available to physiotherapists, chiropractors, osteopaths, medical doctors and other qualified clinicians and offers 22 CPD hours.

The M1-Basic Training will introduce clinicians to GT, its clinical applications, physiological effects/benefits and potential contraindications. The M2-Advanced Training will emphasize a Graston Technique® examination and treatment approach for musculoskeletal dysfunction/mechanical pain that can be applied in all patient cases using GT and movement.

GT Package Discounted

The GT package includes M1 and M2 trainings, a set of GT instruments, three jars of emollient, foam tray and 50 GT patient brochures. The price is $3,525 USD (GT package) plus $705 USD (VAT) for a total of $4,230 USD. Save $480 USD off the standard professional price. (When you register, $4,230 USD will be charged to your credit card for the M1/M2 courses, instruments and supplies.)

Take advantage of this special opportunity and go back to your clinic/practice on Monday to start treating with GT immediately!

Completing M2 training enables you to become a certified GT provider, a designation that sets you apart from others in your field.

Combo course and special pricing is limited. Seats fill quickly. Register by February 1, 2012.

Training Dates and Times

Course starts promptly at 15:00 on Friday, 24th February and will go into late evenings on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Exact times/schedule to be determined.
